

Michał Biel is a Polish pianist and vocal coach. In 2017, he graduated from the The Juilliard School, where he studied collaborative piano under Brian Zeger, Margo Garrett, Jonathan Feldman and JJ Penna.

Among other prizes, he has been awarded Prize for Outstanding Young Pianist at the 9th International S. Moniuszko Vocal Competition; Best Young Accompanist at Le Grand Prix de l'Opera in Bucharest (2015); Outstanding Accompaniment at the 10th L. Różycki Vocal Competition in Gliwice (2015); and First Prize at the Academic Competition of Art Song in Wrocław (2013).

He has also participated in several residencies as pianist and coach, including Internationale Meistersinger Akademie in Neumarkt (2016, 2017), Songfest in Los Angeles (2016) The Song Continues at Carnegie Hall (2016), the Mozart Residency at The Académie du Festival d'Aix (2015), the 31st Winter Vocal Course in Duszniki Zdrój, and Wratlavia Cantans Festival (2013). Since June 2013, he has been a member of the Opera Academy at Teatr Wielki - Polish National Opera.